

The 2010 Local 881 UFCW Scholarship
Rules, Regulations, and Application Procedures

This scholarship will be awarded to a member or child of a member in good standing with Local 881 UFCW in accordance with the provisions of Local 881 and UFCW by-laws. This means that the member must have been in continuous good standing with all dues fully paid for one year, with membership commencing on or before April 30, 2009. The member must also maintain membership in good standing until the time the award is presented in order to be eligible to receive a scholarship.

Four $1,000 scholarships will be awarded in 2010; one each in Northern Illinois, Central Illinois, Southern Illinois, and Northwest Indiana. Winners are not eligible to receive more than one award. If a qualified applicant cannot be selected from any of the four regions, a scholarship will not be awarded for that region. One additional applicant, judged outstanding among all entries, will be chosen to receive a $4,000 award. NOTE: Previous Local 881 UFCW Scholarship winners are not eligible to apply for these awards.

Applicants must be attending full-time, or accepted to attend full-time, an accredited college, university, community college, or recognized trade school at the time the award is presented. Applicants should complete and return the attached application and submit along with certain school documents. They will also be asked to write an essay, no longer than 1,200 words, on the Labor topic listed on the application. Failure to fill out completely and legibly any portion of the application form, or to provide any of the requested documentation or other materials, will result in disqualification. All essays will remain the property of Local 881, and Local 881 retains the right to print any submitted essay in any of its publications or on its website. Local 881 also reserves the right to publicly use the names of the winners for promotion of its scholarship program. The deadline for submission of the application form is midnight, February 28, 2010. NOTE: APPLICATIONS POSTMARKED AFTER FEBRUARY 28, 2010, WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Applicants will be selected based on academic achievement, career goals, leadership, and a demonstrated understanding of the American Labor Movement. Scholarship recipients will be selected by an independent panel of labor leaders, educators, civic leaders, and/or public officials and the decision of the Scholarship Selection Committee will be final. Award winners only will be notified by April 15, 2010, and will be invited and required to accept their awards at a Scholarship Awards Ceremony hosted by Local 881. Specific scholarship amounts will be announced to the winners prior to the award ceremony. Winners will also be required, prior to receiving their awards, to provide the committee with official certification of acceptance, enrollment, or attendance at an accredited institution of higher learning. Failure to attend an institution of higher learning constitutes disqualification.

For questions, call Local 881 at 847/294-5064, ext. 407. Mail applications to: Local 881 UFCW, 10400 W. Higgins Road, Rosemont, IL 60018-3705, Attn: Scholarship Selection Committee.
